

Minutes from the Nov. 1, 2005 Dandelion Family Association meeting:

- The Executive Committee voted to change the name from the Family Center Association (FCA) to the Dandelion Family Association (DFA).
- The group discussed the Family Fall Festival on Oct. 29 and felt the day was a success. Appreciation was extended to the family responsible for organizing the event and to the parent responsible for designing and distributing the fliers for this event.
- The Brunswick Veteran's Day Parade was discussed and the final details were decided for the Yard Sale on Nov. 12, including advertising and donation of items left over from the sale.
- Results of the Family Involvement Questionnaire were distributed. Thanks to all who have completed and turned in their questionnaires. Staff present agreed to contact parents interested in planning the December event.
- The Executive Committee has voted to do all of the events noted on the questionnaire in the upcoming year.
- The members who were present at the meeting have volunteered to create a Dandelion Family Association handbook to be distributed in January to all families and to use during parent tours.
- The December Holiday family event was discussed with input from staff requested. A parent will create fliers to distribute to families once details are finalized.
